10 March 2014

Dear Helcio Lima and TTL:

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of MIT Sloan's Action Learning Program, we are pleased to present you with this certificate of recognition for your role as a host organization for Global Entrepreneurship Lab 2014 (G-Lab).

Since 2000, G-Lab has selected and partnered the world's most driven entrepreneurial ventures with MIT Sloan's most promising MBA students to create real-time learning experiences and yield value-added results. During the past decade, more than 400 G-Lab student teams have collaborated with companies in over 50 countries, producing measurable results and meaningful impact for the host organizations.

As a key offering of MIT Sloan's Action Learning Program, G-Lab supports Sloan's mission to develop principled, innovative leaders who improve the world and generate ideas that advance management practice. A real-world manifestation of MIT Sloan's motto, "mens et manus," mind and hand, G-Lab strives to make the globe a classroom and to bring theory into practice.

We thank you for the time and effort you have contributed to the G-Lab collaboration, and we hope that it has been a rewarding experience for you and your organization. It has been a pleasure partnering with you.

Sincerely,
